Schlossberg Graz

Graz – Austria's second largest city

REASON ENOUGH TO KEEP COMING BACK TO GRAZ.

The beautiful historic city centre, the flair of art and design and versatile event venues make any conference stay in Graz a positive experience.

MEETING IN GRAZ – DELIGHT INCLUDED

There's no doubt about it: Graz is a beautiful city and a great place to live. It was 20 years ago that Graz sparkled as European Cultural Capital City and that year had enduring effects on the city – it still bears the trendy title of "City of Design". The historic city centre of Graz is listed as UNESCO World Cultural Heritage and Graz is Austria's only Capital of Delight. Graz is the second largest city in Austria. Both historical and modern conference centres are available – depending on preference and capacity, but all featuring up-to-date technical equipment of course.

EVERYTHING YOU NEED AND NOT TOO LARGE

As a university city and an important centre for research and business, Graz is a highly regarded destination for scientific conferences in particular. At the same time, the city impresses with short distances, a welcoming atmosphere, a vibrant historic centre and a varied cultural programme shaped by fascinating contrasts.

THE ADVANTAGES OF THE CITY COMBINED WITH EXCURSIONS IN THE REGION

Right by the city, Styria can fulfil the dreams of inquisitive epicures, those in pursuit of wellness and lovers of golf, spiriting you away to enchanting landscapes. Styrian wine country is one of the most beautiful and productive regions in Austria, also featuring castles and palaces, hot thermal spas and the wild and romantic Graz hill country, inviting you to a wide choice of excursions. Naturally, in the Graz Region there's no shortage of culinary delights – try for yourself.
